

I have purchased XM Satellite service when it was first available. It is pretty much all I listen to. Being that I pay for the service, I want and need all that they offer. It is an outrage for NAB to try and limit what XM offers to its customers. I disagree with what NAB is trying to do. Please leave XM alone, as they provide excellent service that I pay for.